

CODE OF ETHICS

In its life as an employer, a partner and responsible corporate citizen, BlueLife expects that its values reflect in the conduct of its members in the following manner:

Integrity

He will behave in an exemplary manner by being honest, transparent, impartial and loyal in whatever he does

Respect

He will be tolerant to others whilst respecting the person, his ideas and belongings

Professionalism

He will use all his competencies in the exercise of his duties so as to satisfy customers and uphold the credibility of his enterprise and the Group

Citizenship

He will behave as a responsible and caring citizen with the aim of improving the future of his country and the Mauritians, in particular by working to protect the environment

Excellence

He will strive with passion to perform his duties or make his products to the highest standards

Innovation

He will foster novelty and creativity in his job to anticipate or react to any change in the environment and so ensure the sustainable development